

Builder Details Proposed VB Apartment Complex

BELLEVILLE--Details of how the proposed Lakeland Park apartment development will be laid out on the McMullan property between Belleville Lake and the freeway were spelled out this week for the Enterprise-Roman.

Frank J. Volk, Sr., long-time builder-developer in west side Detroit-area communities, released the plot plan for publication and discussed questions which have been troubling some Van Buren residents since rezoning of the land first was sought.

Rezoning for apartments and a nine-hole golf course was granted unanimously by the township board after presentation of facts showing that as much as $800,000 annually would be contributed to the township tax base upon completion of the proposed 2,000 units five to ten years hence.

A GROUP of opponents of the plan circulated petitions for a referendum seeking to nullify the decision of the township officials. The vote has been set for May 7.

Discussion of the issue has been mounting since the recent defeat of the millage increase sought by the Van Buren Township Board of Education.

Volk said that the millage vote points up the township's urgent need for additional tax base and that other neighboring areas have sought to accomplish this through rezoning for higher densities and for industrial and commercial use.

"From a tax standpoint," he said, "apartment developments fall into the same category as industry - and every forward-looking community today is out there fighting for industry to help its taxpayers cover the rising costs of services and education.

"Modern, well-placed apartment developments have almost no effect on the student rolls because the majority of apartment dwellers are in the age brackets before child rearing or are older people whose children have grown up and gone.

"THE RECORD shows that, where children are permitted in large apartment projects on a wide-open basis, only one in 15 apartments will have a school child.

"We will go further than that and say that we will not take residents with school-age children under high school age. This will reduce resident demands on the school system almost to the vanishing point, or to about one in 40 apartments.

"As in other comparable developments, at least 50 percent of the residents will be in the group whose children have married and left. These will be substantial people because rents along the lake, for example, will be in the $250 to $300 monthly range. Even the lowest priced one-bedroom apartment will be $190.

"Anyone who can afford rents certainly will bring substantial purchasing power into the Van Buren community, which will benefit all businessmen, as well as area residents who might easily share in added employment possibilities. Everyone in the township should share in the tax benefits."

As an indication of the significance of Lakeland Park in the tax picture, Volk pointed out that Lakeland Park's tax contribution of some $800,000 would be more than three and a half times the total budget just approved by the Van Buren Township Board. The schools would benefit from a high portion of this amount.

School Loiterers Face Arrest Juvenile Court Judge Warns

BELLEVILLE -- All juveniles found loitering or causing a disturbance within a school in the Van Buren Public School District or any school in Wayne County will be arrested and conveyed immediately to Wayne County Youth Home, Wayne County Probate Judge James H. Lincoln in charge of Juvenile Division of Probate Court warned this week.

The judge's warning was sent to all Wayne County Police Agencies and school officials, in the form of a memorandum. The judge stated that the purpose of the memorandum "is to take forceful action concerning school drop-outs, juveniles suspended from school, and juveniles who are enrolled in one school but who loiter in and around schools in which they are not enrolled."

DISTURBANCES CAUSED by these non-enrolled juveniles have reached major proportions in some schools, Judge Lincoln reported.

"With the help of the police and school officials, the court intends to let every juvenile know that if he is not enrolled in a school, and has no business in a school, that arrest will automatically result in conveyance to the Wayne County Youth Home," Judge Lincoln added.

In minor violations in the vicinity of a school, officials may handle the matter by an ordinance violation ticket without bringing the juvenile to the Youth Home. If the violation is severe, or the offender a known repeater, "he should be brought to the Youth Home forthwith even though the violation occurs outside the school building," the warning said.

It was reported that in Belleville schools, "there have been no disturbances so far."

James G. Coplas, assistant principal at Belleville High stated that "if we do have any problems this gives us something we can work with."

Romulus School Building Program Receives Setback

PROPOSED APARTMENT COMPLEX--The above is an architect's site plan of a proposed apartment complex--"Lakeland Park" approved for construction on 147 acres of land located along Belleville Lake frontage between Denton and Beckley Roads and I-94 Expressway. A rezoning of the land owned by Henry and Zora McMullan by the Van Buren Township Board has resulted in a referendum vote scheduled for May 7. The project above will embrace 2,000 units, none-hole golf course, swimming pool and tennis courts to be built over a five-year period. The initial phase would contain some 200 dwelling units.

Bond Sale Fails To Attract Bids

Board Seeks Ok By State To Increase Interest Rate

By Henry Cantin
ANP Staff Writer

ROMULUS -- The 1968 School Building and Site Purchase Program of Romulus Community Schools received a serious financial setback Monday night.

The sale of a $3,400,000 bond issue to finance the school system's proposed and approved building programs scheduled at 7:30 p. m. Monday failed to attract any bidders, Robert L. McConeghy, school superintendent, reported.

On advice of the school district's bonding attorneys, Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, the School Board passed a resolution approving the filing of an amended application with Michigan Municipal Finance Commission to schedule another public sale of the bond issue at a maximum interest rate of five and a half per cent.

The present maximum interest rate is fixed at five per cent, McConeghy stated. The failure to receive any bids means that the school system's building program has been delayed at least until the state acts on the School Board's request.

Elwell's Bee Champ Crowned

BELLEVILLE--A fifth grade student, Frank Banotal, 10, was crowned spelling champion of the Elwell Elementary school in the annual bee conducted last Friday. The runner-up was Joyce Davenport, a sixth grade student.

Frank won the title by correctly spelling the word 'Groceries'. Twenty students, ten from the fifth grade and ten from the sixth grade, competed in the contest. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Banotal of 20165 Elwell road.

Mrs. Barbara Burgess was the contest pronouncer and the judges were Mrs. Ben Hall and Mrs. Ruth Clift.

FINANCIAL CONSULTANTS for the School Board, Kenower, MacArthur & Company, reported "that general conditions in the financial markets at this time" appear to be the reason for lack of sale bids by bond underwriters.

"The reason for this is that interest rates on all fixed income securities are high."

The Lenten Season

(Editor's Note: The following article is the third in a series of Lenten Sermons by area pastors and leading churchmen. This week's article was submitted by Rev. Paul D. Cross, pastor of The Belleville United Presbyterian Church.)

HOW WE MAY KEEP LENT

WE are now in the midst of the Lenten season. Lent we recall is the forty day period before Easter and serves as a time of preparation for the celebration of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. In the remaining days of Lent let us be aware of how we may keep Lent.

It seems that for some Lent has become the one period of the year when many Christians deny themselves some of the things in which they have been indulging. Some of them give up such things as candy, movies, or smoking, or some other such thing. For many this kind of self-denial has become superficial. Many folks give up what they don't need any way.

There are dangers attached to the practice of giving up "things" in Lent. Often enough the things which are given up do not amount to much. It may be done in the spirit of how "little" we can give up without displeasing God.

Moreover, denying ourselves a few things, for a short period of the year is apt to create a sense of pride. It may lead a man to pat himself on the back for his "goodness." Merely giving up one or two things for a few weeks in the year can never be a substitute for the Christian life.

Also, the practice of giving up this or that in Lent may lead us to believe that self-denial should be practiced only six weeks of the year when it is something that should be practiced all of our lives.

LET US ask ourselves then how we can keep Lent today. Instead of criticizing the world for its worldliness, let us criticize ourselves for our own sins. Let us ask how during the remaining days of Lent we may rebuild the wasted affections of the heart and make improvement in all those virtues that are pleasing both to our conscience and to God.

For one thing, we can very well use Lent as a season of special bodily discipline.

Even though Jesus one time fasted for forty days and nights the Bible does not command the curtailing of our diet during Lent. The Bible has no iron-clad rules about the surrendering of those fattening tid-bits we love so much.

But wait a bit, before we throw the idea of this kind of self-denial out let us imagine a man who has been indolent in his diet -- careless in obeying the rules of health. Suppose a nervous breakdown is just around the corner. For such a man Lent might well become the

CLERK AIRS ALLEGATIONS

Romulus Township Attorney Asked To Appear Before Board on Job

By Henry Cantin
ANP Staff Writer

ROMULUS -- John E. Young, Romulus Township's attorney, is being requested to appear before the Romulus Township Board, March 19, to answer allegations pertaining to his current employment contract with the Township.

Alfred J. Perry, township clerk, when asked about the appearance request admitted that matters pertaining to the attorney's employment by the Township will be aired at the Township Board meeting. He also stated that he has dispatched a letter to the attorney asking him to appear.

The attorney's appearance is a scheduled agenda item on the March 19 Board meeting and is being held to "straighten out some documentary information relating to a possible conflict of interest," Perry said, in reporting that he had initiated the move in interest of the Township.

THE CLERK pointed out that in an "unsolicited" letter dated May 23, 1967, signed and sent to Board members by John E. Young relative to his employment as legal advisor to the Romulus Township stated:

"The undersigned is a partner in the law firm of Elmsman, Young & O'Rourke. Although the name of Felix E. Rogalle previously appeared in the name of the firm, Mr. Rogalle (currently Romulus Township's Justice of the Peace - ED) was never associated as a partner with Elmsman, Young or O'Rourke. None of us shared income or expenses with him. Mr. Rogalle's name appeared on the stationery and (See ATTORNEY page 2)

time for him to begin to restrict his diet for the sake of his health. If Lent recommends temperance and restraint, if it creates conditions that are for his good, then is not our busy man of affairs honor bound to accept these restrictions with a thankful heart?

IF THE headache that keeps us from church on Sunday is the result of too much celebration on Saturday night, then, might not Lent be a good time to end such celebrations? If our bad temper is due to late hours and too much work, then is not Lent the best time in the world to correct the trouble that bothers us?

Merely to live cleanly and carefully, to honor the body and not gorge it with food; to control every appetite, we admit is not to grasp the spiritual meaning of Lent.

Lent is something far deeper and finer, still, to do these things is good. Blessed is the man who does them unto God. He shall not fail in his reward. Added health and happiness shall be his, the path of life for him shall be smoother and sweeter than otherwise it could be.

In the second place, Lent may well be for us a season of spiritual renewal.

In dealing with the body and its need, it is easy enough to know when the body is in health or not. However, diseases of the soul do not reveal themselves so readily. A man may have a sick soul, and neither he nor his friends may realize what his spiritual condition is.

Do we know how healthy or unhealthy our souls are? Whether we know or not, the fact remains that it is good to investigate our souls every so often and Lent is a good time to do so.

HOW MANY times during the past year did we go to church and give our hearts to God in whole-hearted worship? Maybe if we looked at the record, we would be shocked and grieved to see how few they were. How many times did we pray? If we counted those times would they be many or few?

We may say, "Some day I mean to repent of every sin that possesses me, to bury the hatchet of my hatred for others, to be at peace with all men. Some day I mean to think about religion and prepare for eternity and heaven." Some day -- yes, but when? I did not do it twenty years ago and I did not do it last year. Will this year slip by unused like the others?

For sick souls, always waiting for tomorrow, there is no season like Lent for spiritual renewal. Now, while the Saviour calls, let us hear and heed. Now while He gathers His disciples to go with Him to Jerusalem, let us join their number and follow in their train. If we can but use Lent is some such fashion as the, the season is bound to bring blessing and profit to us.

Dr. Grillo Re-elected

BELLEVILLE -- Dr. S. Phillip Grillo, 45161 Harmony Lane, has been re-elected to active membership in the American Academy of General Practice, the national association of family doctors.

Re-election signifies that the physician has successfully completed 150 hours of accredited post graduate medical study in the last three years.

The Academy, the country's second largest national medical association, is the only medical group that requires members to keep up with medical progress through continuing education.

EXPLAINING THE plot plan for the proposal, Volk said that fully a third of the buildings will be located with access directly from Beckley road or the free-way service drive, while the rest will be clustered along the nine-hole golf course and along what will be landscaped bluffs on the lake.

Ninety percent of the traffic to the development will be from the freeway and along the service drive, since most residents will work some distance away, according to Volk.

"There is now and will continue to be a complete severance of relation between Mr. Rogalle and the undersigned and between Mr. Rogalle and the firm of Elsmann, Young & O'Rourke.

"There is now and will be no sharing of income or sharing of expenses between Mr. Rogalle and the undersigned and the firm."

YOUNG'S PRESENT employment contract with Romulus, his initial contract, expires May 1, 1968. The contract calls for an annual salary of $15,000 for legal services.

Since the May 23, 1967 letter, an invoice calling for payment for legal services by Young was presented to the Township Board on stationery listing the firm of Elsmann, Young, O'Rourke & Rogalle, 2034 Guardian Building, Detroit. A check in the amount of $1,165 issued in payment was cashed by the same firm, Perry reported.

Perry now contends that Judge Rogalle's name on the firm's stationery indicates an association between the Township attorney (Young) and Rogalle. He further disclosed that the Lawyers Handbook of 1968 also shows both Young and Rogalle as members in the same firm. Young was hired by the Board by a five to two vote.

Edmund Blizek, township supervisor, and Alfred J. Perry voted against the appointment because, he (Perry) reported the Board refused to review other applicants for the position.

Young replaced John Kadela, now Dearborn Municipal Court Judge, as Township attorney.

be located at the end of McMullan Point.

The clubhouse facilities will be available, on reservation, to Van Buren social and other groups.

Tennis courts will be moved from the location as shown on the plan to an interior location to enhance the greenbelt nature of the portion abutting existing fine homes at the southeast corner, Volk said. Further, three luxury lakefront homes adjacent to these neighbors will be built and probably be occupied by members of the McMullan family. No multiple building will be immediately next to existing homes.

THE APARTMENTS themselves will be luxury units. Apartments will have private balconies, bulkheaded with masonry on both sides for privacy. All will have a bath and a half and every unit will have its own washer-dryer combination and dishwasher.

Many will have gas or electric fireplaces, or walnut paneling in the living rooms. Insulating glass windows and central air conditioning will curb noise and provide indoor comfort that will limit lake attraction largely to viewing. Party walls and ceilings will be sound - proofed. Carpeting throughout will supplement sound control.

Individual furnaces and controls, gas ranges, 14-cubic foot two - door refrigerators and drapes will be provided. Roads will be of concrete, while parking lots will be of asphalt and will afford parking for nearly two cars per apartment. There will be attractively designed carports.

THE GOLF COURSE, pools, tennis courts, a health club with gymnasium and sauna bath, along with the interior comforts, are expected to make the community self-sufficient in terms of recreation facilities. Further, Volk said, in addition to demanding no recreational provision by the township for its residents, the development will represent an effective and important supplement to the recreational needs of the township as a whole.

Esthetically, the brick buildings will present clean-cut modern architecture with broad window areas and setbacks to viewers from the lake and high-

HOW MANY HORSESHOES WOULD IT TAKE TO PROTECT YOUR BUSINESS?

Not many businessmen worry about horseshoes anymore. They know it takes more than horseshoes to protect them if a customer is injured in their place of business. They know sound planning, not luck, is required if they are to recover from a weekend fire. An important part of sound planning is business insurance. come obligations have now risen to all-time peaks and the five per cent maximum rate permitted on the Romulus school bond issue appears to be too low to compete with rates on comparable bond issues now being marketed," McConeghy said.

The rating of Romulus bond issue is similar to most school bond issues in the Detroit Metropolitan area including Wayne Community School District, Van Buren Public School District, Plymouth, Livonia, Lincoln Park, Bloomfield and Cresswood school districts, he said.

THE SCHOOL BOARD was presented with two possible choices: postpone the sale of the bonds until there is a substantial change in general interest rates. Consultants report that financial and economic indices indicate that interest rates will continue at present levels for some time and may go higher.

The Board elected to take the second choice by adopting a resolution asking for approval of another sale bid but at a higher rate of interest.

Purpose of the $3,400,000 bond issue was to provide funds for erecting, furnishing and equipping a new elementary school, building and additions to existing elementary school buildings, a high school building and administration building.

Also for erecting, furnishing and equipping a maintenance building, re-equipping existing school buildings and improving existing school sites and acquiring additional land for site purposes, McConeghy said.

The two-act musical is under the direction of Keith E. Drayton, music teacher at Quirk Elementary School and a veteran in plays and operetta presentations.

House Bill to Regulate Detroit Water Board Gets VB Support

BELLEVILLE -- Louis A. Toth, Van Buren Township, has endorsed support of House Bill 3868 introduced by Representative Alfred A. Sheridan -- Democrat, Taylor, Michigan, which would regulate municipally owned public utility systems which provide service outside their corporate boundaries to more than 1000 individual customers.

Representative Sheridan said: "It is no secret that this bill is particularly aimed at the Detroit Water Board. Under the present operation the suburban areas are at the mercy of the Detroit Water Board and the local Supervisor and Mayors have no voice in the costs of water to the people they represent."

why or if the increase was necessary," said Sheridan.

This increase has met with objections in Van Buren and adjacent areas.

The Detroit water system is now in the process of completing a water intake at Fort Huron which will service the Flint area. At this rate, by 1975 the Detroit Water System will service water to about 70% of the people of Michigan, Sheridan asked: "Why the people of the Downriver suburbs should have to pay for this expansion when they will never benefit from it?" Sheridan added.

"I also feel," said Sheridan, "that if the Detroit system wants to go into the state-wide utility business then they should be under the same control as Michigan Consolidated Gas, Detroit-Edison, Michigan Bell Telephone, etc., and should have to justify their rates to the Public Utilities Commission," Sheridan said.

Water and Sewer Bonds, and also is Head of the Detroit Water Department that this may be questionable.

In conclusion, Sheridan said that he is hopeful that the House Committee on Public Utilities of which he is a member will act favorably on this legislation, and he expects his colleagues on the committee to support him in reporting this bill to the House Floor for debate in the immediate future.

PUBLIC MEET DRAWS 300

Van Buren Civic Association Names Officers and Board

BELLEVILLE -- A public meeting sponsored by The Van Buren Civic Association was held at the Belleville Junior High School, last Wednesday, (March 6).

The meeting attracted 200 to 300 members and interested citizens. The Association's publicity chairman and board member, William Jenkins, conducted the meeting, and introduced chairman, vice-chairman, secretary-treasurer, eleven board members and attorney of the civic group.

He also presented the reasons for founding and the principles of the Association which it will strive to achieve.

The two main principles are: A: Afford to the citizenry of Van Buren Township a non-partisan civic organization which will assure each member an opportunity to voice his opinion in a manner that, without reservation, will be heard by local officials in all matters which affect the future of our township.

B: Assure that the destiny of our township is determined solely by, and in the best interest of the citizens of Van Buren Township and not by outsiders whose only concern is to make a profit at our future expense.

Chairman James L. Borst thanked the citizens and members for their participation in the referendum petition and answered numerous questions of concern to the people. The petition contained 864 signatures. A referendum election is set for May 7.

He was taken to the Wayne County General Hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival. Police reported Bruck

AN EDITORIAL

We Salute Our Area Girl Scouts

In Savannah, Georgia, on March 12, 1912, girl scouting in the U.S. had its beginnings. The birthday commemoration of this outstanding organization will be observed this year from March 10-16, during Girl Scout Week.

True to its traditions of more than half a century, the Girl Scouts have a new look. The organization is involved in helping girls understand and deal with problems of urban ghettos. Girl Scouts will have opportunities to learn more about music, dramatics, the visual arts and space exploration. There will be travel and study programs in the U.S. and abroad.

The Girl Scouts offer these opportunities to all girls between the ages of 7 and 17, regardless of race, color or creed.

THE HORIZONS have never been broader for young people, and the scouting movement offers an opportunity of exploring these horizons to girls who, in many cases, might otherwise not even be aware of them.

There is great significance in this, for the girls of today will be the wives and mothers of tomorrow and will, in large measure, hold the responsibility of passing on the torch of civilization - the values, the concern, the understanding and competence - that will be so sorely needed by those who will guide the nation and the world the day after tomorrow.

It's a well-deserved tribute which we pay to the Girl Scouts of the United States of America.

"YOUR NOT FOOLING ME" - seems to be the expression of the dreamland watchdog (who really is a friend), as he keeps an eye on little Julie who is "supposed to be" taking her afternoon nap. In reality ANP's Bill Balogh's camera again proves that kids are real "hams" and love to have their picture taken, even when they should be napping. Then again can't you just hear her telling mom, "How could I go to sleep with those flashbulbs flashing in my eyes and the doggie barking in my ear" ... oh well, Bonne nuit, mon'enfant!

Museum Trip Reported

ROMULUS -- "We went to the museum to learn about fossils and things," said Nancy Flannery.

"The museum is in Ann Arbor," said David Mitchell. "We rode the bus to Ann Arbor from Mt. Pleasant Elementary School," Benny Beavers said. Chris Collins said, "We saw prehistoric bones of mammals," and Tammy Phillips saw diamonds and rocks. "We saw some models of dinosaurs and a baby tiger," said Kim Wood. Albert Bartley, David Luck, Tommy Arquette, Robbie Champagne and Kevin Wagle. Dean Gilbert was very excited about the giant elephant skeleton.

EAGLE FEATHERS, a big fish, and large fossil legs were seen by Tommy Ostrowski, Billy Scarlet, and Jimmy Gregg. Terry Tkachuk saw a "big ol' head with teeth hanging out." Michael Campbell said, "I saw a bunch of owls." James Clark, Donna Sirhan, and Jeff Moomaw saw swans and dinosaurs.

Betty Pritula saw a wolf and Betty Smolinski saw many kinds of extinct animal models. Mrs. Catherine Pritula, Mrs. Elizabeth Clark, Mrs. Betty Ostrowski, and Mrs. Dorothy Smolinski enjoyed the trip with Mrs. Esther Frazier's class of first graders.

The museum we went to was in Ann Arbor.

Upon returning to Mt. Pleasant, the first graders drew pictures of their trip and sent them to Harold Cannon, their principal. The trip took place Wednesday, Feb. 21.

The Public Letter Box

TO THE EDITOR:

The recent letter signed Rodney A. Bly must be answered because it is filled with misinformation, presented with a "big lie" technique. It was obviously written to confuse and defeat my effort to create a fine golf course-apartment community on the McMullan property between the Freeway and Belleville Lake -- a community that can help build sorely needed tax base for Van Buren Township residents when voted for at the May 7 special election.

In reply to the question about past experience, I do not now own and have never owned apartments in Lincoln Park or Allen Park. I do own the Fairlane Apartments, a highly successful development of 204 units on Telegraph at Haskell, Taylor Township.

Eight years old, these units have just been brought up to today's standards, including carpeting in halls and apartments, and throughout their life have been maintained so as to attract full occupancy by fine people who have been willing to pay rent increases dictated by rising costs.

In many years of building and developing, I have also provided some 3,000 homes for Detroiters - 700 of which are adjacent to the Fairlane Apartments and still appreciating in value to the same extent as other homes elsewhere. I have the highest possible standing among Taylor officials, Taylor people and the financial community.

AS TO the suggestion about the Vincent property, I have never been interested in that land and know nothing about plans for its development.

I cannot speak for Supervisor Toth, but I understand he has flatly denied having any options on nearby property, and would suggest that if Mr. Bly and his associates really wish to find out the facts, it would be very easy for them to ask the present owners.

As for rebuilding the service drive, the State has plans for this but, as in other cases of the kind undoubtedly will proceed only as the need develops. Beckley and Denton, along this property, will be paved at my own expense at a time consistent with the development program.

This is the normal way, acceptable to other communities.

MR. BLY asks about guarantees, and I would reply to this that Van Buren residents have the same guarantee from me about the development that any other property owner - including home owners - could give relative to the future of their property. However, I can say for sure that this Van Buren land is much too valuable to downgrade with anything but the finest in housing.

As for possible added costs to the community, this development will be self-supporting through its heavy tax contributions to an extent far greater than possibly any other single taxpayer in the township.

I would further submit that present township officials, as elected by Van Buren voters, DO represent the best interest of the majority of the people to the best of their ability. Any attack by a small segment for private reasons on the carefully considered actions of these officials can only represent an attempt to seize control from these representatives of the people.

Frank J. Volk

TO THE EDITOR:

Is the freedom of the press still left to us? Will you print this letter and let our friends and neighbors know that Mrs. Mary McKee, the victim of a smear campaign, is still at her corner working in the best interests of her customers? Her only crime has been to LEGALLY recover an individual's money from the Internal Revenue Service. Yet her only means of livelihood has been wiped out with charges not substantiated.

We would like her friends to know that their trust was not misplaced, she is still there at her usual place of business. We should encourage these few, champions of the people, that are left to work for us.

TO THE EDITOR:

May I ask the question, Is the new Van Buren Civic Association interested in getting all the facts behind proposed developments in Van Buren Township, or is the civic association going to be just a sounding board for any negative arguments?

If the civic association is going to get all the facts on proposed legislation or votes then the organization can be a very useful democratic group.

But if the civic association is going to be just a sounding board for self-interest, then I think all Van Buren citizens should fight it.

In the next few weeks we'll find out what it is by the methods it uses to investigate Lakeland Park. Let's hope the civic association leaders act properly in this matter.

Your Income Tax

(The seventh of the series appears below.)

INTEREST INCOME

Interest which you receive or which is credited to your account (even though not entered in your passbook) is taxable unless it is specifically exempt from tax.

Most types of interest are taxable. However, interest received on obligations of a state, territory, or political subdivision are non-taxable.

Interest on United States Savings Bonds is taxable in full. If you own these bonds, you may elect to report the interest as it accrues each year, or you can wait until you cash the bonds and then report all the interest you have received. Once you make your election, you must report the same way on all the types of bonds that you own.

SOME TAXPAYERS continue to hold savings bonds beyond the original redemption date. If you defer the reporting of interest, you may continue to do so on such bonds until they are redeemed.

Occasionally interest received from certain credit unions and savings and loan associations are termed "dividends" by the paying organization. Amounts paid as earnings on your savings are actually interest and must be reported as such on your return. These amounts do not qualify as dividends for the $100 exclusion.

Read your instruction booklet carefully. After doing so, if you still have a question, Document No. 5448 will furnish more detailed information on this subject.

MEDICAL & DENTAL EXPENSE

For taxpayers who itemize, deductible medical and dental expenses include amounts paid for diagnosis, prevention, cure, correction, or treatment of a physical or mental defect or illness.

However, changes in the medical expense provisions of the federal tax laws will affect the 1967 returns of many taxpayers.

THOSE WHO itemize may now claim a deduction, up to $150, for one-half of their medical and hospitalization insurance premiums, without regard to any other-wise applicable medical expense limitations. The remaining one-half of such insurance may then be included with other medical expenses and is subject to the 3 percent limitation.

Taxpayers are also cautioned that beginning with 1967 returns, the limitations applicable to medical expenses apply to all individuals regardless of age. Taxpayers 65 and over can no longer deduct their total costs for medical and dental expenses.

The $3 monthly payment for medical insurance under the Medicare Program qualifies as a medical expense and is deductible in the same manner as other medical insurance provisions.

Medicine and drug costs may be included as a medical expense only to the extent they exceed one percent of adjusted gross income. Such excess is added to other medical and dental expenses paid during the year. The total is then reduced by three percent of total income shown on line 9 of form 1040. This remainder is the allowable medical expense deduction.

The form 1040 instruction booklet further explains medical expense deductions.

Old-timer Relates Memories Of Wildlife Week Originator

By LEE SMITS
Special Writer

As National Wildlife Week looms up for the 31st year, what memories it brings to this old-timer! Memories centered about the personality of the man whose concept of conservation established the present direction of the movement. I am permanently proud to have been chosen by Ding Darling to help him in the undertaking that he launched and kept going.

Ding Darling was one of the most famous cartoonists of his era. He was a gifted writer, a dynamic speaker and, above all, an inspired evangelist.

National Wildlife Week -- to be held this year March 17 through March 23 -- was Ding Darling's idea. He founded the National Wildlife Federation, sponsoring the week, and painted the first wildlife week stamps.

Ding Darling poured out not only talent, time and energy in his crusade, he also enlisted richer men in the cause. A typical Darling project was a program of seminars, which he financed, for instructing grade-school teachers in basic ecology. Ding Darling believed that unless youngsters were grounded in conservation principles his big plan could not have lasting success.

FACTS PUBLISHED in "Who's Who" are contributed by the subject of the thumbnail biography. Ding Darling's "Who's Who" paragraph is sparse and non-informative, although it does include his full name -- Jay Norwood Darling -- and revealed that he was a native of Michigan.

Norwood was his birthplace, a modest community at the mouth of Grand Traverse Bay. "Who's Who" did not report that Ding's father was a clergyman, a Congregational "home missionary." As a boy Ding saw Michigan receive its heaviest single blow from progress -- the stripping of forests followed by the searing of the land by fire.

Ding Darling's dream was a big one. He believed that conservation of natural resources called for the combined action of all interested organizations -- from sportsmen's clubs to Boy Scouts. He pointed out that if just one group in each of the 3,000 counties of the United States became allied with the National Wildlife Federation, a powerful influence would be at work.

Of course the Ding Darling dream did not come true all of a sudden. That rarely happens to noble dreams. But what did happen was the beginning of a new kind of conservation endeavor. No longer is conservation -- in Michigan or in any other state -- measured in terms of fish-and-game laws, planting programs, sportsmen's rallies, important as these may be.

NATIONAL WILDLIFE Week comes as a reminder of just what conservation should mean. Michigan's Wildlife Week Chairman is James L. Goudreau, a long-time resident of St. Ignace, now a Detroit. Jim Goudreau is president of Detroit Outdoorsmen.

Jim says, of the 1968 National Wildlife Week: "I am excited about this year's theme -- Learn to Live With Nature -- because I feel it will appeal to all age groups. The United States Soil Conservation Service has produced two booklets that are being used as teaching aids for this year's observance."

Thus their trails join -- Ding Darling, founder of the National Wildlife Federation, and Jim Goudreau, chairman of Wildlife Week in Michigan. Jim Goudreau and his associates have taken as their slogan "learning to live with nature," and learning can't be started at too early an age.

School Spelling Champions In Romulus Community Named

ROMULUS -- The second round of the Detroit News Metropolitan Spelling Bee was held throughout the Romulus Community School the past week.

Winners of these school bees will have an opportunity to participate in the District Spelling Bee which will be held Wednesday, April 3, at the Harrison Elementary School on Harrison Road, Romulus.

At the Gordonier School, Mike Croyle was named spelling champ after correctly spelling "project". He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Croyle of Ecorse Road. Runner-up was Elaine Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Moore of Kempa Street. Both are sixth grade students in Mrs. Beatrice West's room.

At the Harrison Elementary

School, a sixth grader from Miss Grace Brenningstall's room was named "spelling queen". She is Carla Hay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic W. Hay of 14170 Huron River drive. Runner-up was Debra Romansky, daughter of the S. Romanskys of Pennsylvania road.

CARLA CLINCHED the victory after correctly spelling "vinegar" which proved too much for Debra, and then "visible." In this year's grade bee the two girls reversed roles, Debra being the victor and Carla, the runner-up. "Accurate" proved the lucky word for Kathy Ozment at the Texas School. The winner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ozment, 15769 Colbert street. Runner-up was Duane Marshick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Marshick of Wick road. Both youngsters are fifth graders.

David Vaught emerged victorious at the Romulus Elementary School after correctly spelling "education." He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glynn Vaught, 36866 Ferndale street. Runner-up was Mark Lewkowicz, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewkowicz of Grant road. The contest lasted one hour, with Mrs. Bennett Dugan pronouncing the words and Mrs. Cecil Gaddy and Mrs. Roksandich serving as judges. Both boys are sixth graders.

A FIFTH GRADER clinched the spelling victory at the Mt. Pleasant Elementary School. She is Debra Eckert, daughter of Mrs. Barbara Eckert, 15350 Hannan road. She was also champion of her grade bee. Runner-up was Cheryl Byrd, a sixth grader, of 34522 California street. The winning word was "clerk."

Karen Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Larson, was named "best speller" at the Hayti School. Runner-up was Debra Ledford, daughter of the Kenneth Ledfords. Laurie Jenion and Bruce Lamb were named fifth and sixth grade champions at grade spelling bees held earlier at the school. At the Beverly School Beverly Anderson defeated Diane Shreve to become the champion. Beverly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Anderson, 6313 Hunt Street, Wayne and Diane, the daughter of the Waynards Shreves of 6063 Wayne road. Both are sixth grade students. Beverly correctly spelled "Twentieth" which tripped Diane, and then "quantity" to clinch the victory.

Motorist Survives Train Crash

BELLEVILLE -- Robert Breazeale, 19, of 49280 Hull Road, is thankful to be alive today.

He missed death by inches, Wayne County Sheriff's deputies reported, when his car was struck by a fast-moving passenger train on the Norfolk and Western Railroad tracks just east of Elwell Road last Thursday morning, March 7.

Breazeale was heading east on Elwell Road around 8 a.m. He told deputies that his car windows were up and his car radio was on and he did not see or hear the train.

The southbound train out of Detroit was moving along at approximately 75 miles an hour when it struck Breazeale's car as it crossed the tracks.

The rear end of the car was completely severed from the vehicle.

Train Engineer John M. Miller reported that he had no chance to stop or slow down.

Breazeale was taken to Beyer Memorial Hospital where doctors reported him to be uninjured.

Ford Seeks Survivors on Medical Plan

DEARBORN -- Ford Motor Company is looking for several thousand people.

The search is on to let them know that beginning March 1, 1968, Ford-paid medical expense coverage is available to eligible surviving spouses of employees and retired employees.

Ford estimates there may be several thousand people who have lost contact with the company and who are eligible for the new benefit.

To be eligible for Ford-paid hospital-surgical - medical insurance coverage, a spouse must apply for the coverage and be the survivor of a retired employee or of an employee who would have been eligible for a normal or regular early retirement at the time of his death.

SURVIVING SPOUSES who are 65 or older also must be covered by the medical insurance portion (Part B) of Medicare to be eligible for coverage in addition to meeting the other requirements.

Ford recently mailed several thousand applications for coverage to surviving spouses of retired employees who are currently continuing Ford group medical insurance coverage by making the premium payments and to surviving spouses eligible for retirement plan benefits.

Any surviving spouses who have not been contacted who believe they may be eligible for the coverage may obtain applications for the coverage from personnel benefits representatives at any Ford location.

Former Resident, Dundee Girl, Wed At St. Irene's

In a seven o'clock ceremony February 23 in St. Irene's Catholic Church, Dundee, Janice Valeria Desimpelaere, of 809 E. Kingsley, Ann Arbor, became the bride of Ray A. Russell, of Taylor. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jules Desimpelaere, of 18605 Collins, Dundee, Janice chose for her wedding day an Angelocreation of imported organza and peau d'ange lace fashioned in empire silhouette style with a bateau neckline. The slim skirt was accented with a detachable train embellished with appliques of peau d'ange lace.

A petaled headpiece held her illusion veil which drifted to mid-back length and a cascade arrangement of white roses and ivy completed her bridal finery.

THE NUPtIAL high mass was read by Fr. Stanley Bowers before an altar appointed with white gladioli, red mums, and potted palms. For the double ring rite, the mass was played and sung by Mrs. Teresa La Voy. White ribbons marked the pews as the bride approached the sanctuary with her father. The bridegroom, a graduate of Huron High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Russell, of 9503 Hazel, Taylor, formerly of Belleville.

As her sister's maid of honor, Patricia Desimpelaere, of Dundee, wore a redbrocade floor-length gown trimmed in red satin and white lace. A red satin bow and veiling comprised her headdress and she held a bouquet of white daisies and fern tied with red ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Frank C. Russell, of Dundee, the bridegroom's sister-in-law, and Diana De Mille, of Blissfield, a cousin of the bride. Their frocks were of red satin with red brocade and white lace for accents. Their accessories were identical to the honor attendant's.

ALLAN C. WOLF, of Milan, was asked to serve as best man. Others on the esquire side were the bridegroom's brothers, Frank E. Russell, of Dundee, and Harley Russell, of Taylor.

For the occasion Mrs. Desimpelaere chose an aqua sheath with gold accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses and white mums. A pink sheath and silver accessories were worn by Mrs. Russell, mother of the bridegroom, who added a corsage of pink roses and white mums to her dress.

A reception, attended by some 300 guests, followed at the Moose Lodge, in Milan. The newlyweds are now making their home at 809 E. Kingsley, Ann Arbor.

A graduate of Dundee High School, the new Mrs. Russell attended the University of Michigan and is currently working as a secretary at the Residential College of the U. of M.

Her new husband served with the U. S. Army and is now employed by the Ford Motor Company, in Dearborn.

HARDENS HOME

THOSE TRAVELIN' Wilbur Hardens returned home March 3 after a month's vacation via motor which added some 8,000 miles to their speedometer. The third time they've ventured on this same route, they left February 6 and headed southward to Florida for a visit with their nieces, Mrs. Eva Bossenberger, in Pinellas, and Mrs. Robert Schultz, at Lakeland; as well as with Mrs. Hardens' brother and wife, the Lester Laughmans, in Ellenton.

Enroute to the West Coast, (their next destination), they stopped to see another niece and her husband, S/Sgt. and Mrs. Charles Harmon, in Ozark, Alabama. Arriving at Ontario, California and the chicken ranch of Mr. Hardens' brother and sister-in-law, the Guy Hardens, they helped gather eggs from some 5,000 chickens and were presented with a crate of eggs to take home. "And," the Hardens remarked, "we didn't crack a single egg on our trip. But, wouldn't you know we'd break two while putting them in a bag for a friend at home."

In Hawthorne, California they called on former Belleville residents, the Chet Uileys, and at Vacaville spend some time with Mr. Hardens' cousin, Alva Knickely, at Traverse Air Force Base.

The trip homeward was highlighted by stops at Hoover Dam in Boulder City, Colorado, after a trip through the Mojave Desert

Las Vegas is a town to shun, because there is no doubt, if you're not broke when going in -- you will be coming out!

One last stop for the travelers (who, incidentally, marked their 55th wedding anniversary during their trip) was in Chicago to see their son and family, the Harold Hardens.

Newlyweds Making New Home In Ontario

A week-long honeymoon in Ontario, Canada followed the February 17 wedding of Helen Der-Stepanian, of Belleville, and Sarkis Kassamanian, of Galt, Ontario. St. Sarkis Armenian Apostolic Church, in Dearborn, was reserved for the double ring ceremony.

THE KASSAMANIANS

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kosroy Der-Stepanian, of 17700 Sumpter road, Belleville, Helen approached the gladioli and chrysanthemum adorned altar on the arm of her father. She was gowning in a creation of peau de sole featuring a bell-shaped skirt. Pearl-trimmed Alencon lace accented the scoop neckline, the front skirt, and the wristpoint sleeves. The skirt drifted into a chapel train which was later gathered into a butterfly bustle.

Cathrine Hovsepian, the bride's cousin from Livonia, appeared in a formal gown of pale blue crepe. Venetian lace frosted the empire waist of the sheath dress which featured a flowing train for back interest. Her headpiece was a matching crepe rose with a two tiered bouffant veil attached.

Dressed in identical ensembles in a deeper shade of blue were the three bridesmaids, Bonita Lumetta, of Belleville; Connie Buehly, of Livonia; and Mrs. Mimi Gultvarian, the bride's cousin from Kitchener, Ontario. Each attendant carried a bouquet of blue-tipped carnations.

The junior bridesmaid, Pamela Toorolan, of Detroit, another of the bride's cousins, wore an A-line empire crepe frock in deep blue and held a basket filled with blue-tipped carnations.

The flowergirl, Robin McEachern, of Brantford, Ontario, was escorted to the altar by her cousin, George Hovsepian, who served as ringbearer. Robin was dressed the same as the junior bridesmaid.

FARRO HOVSEPIAN, of Livonia, served as best man. The corps of ushers included the bridegroom's brother, Retios Kassamanian, of Galt, Ontario; the bride's brother, Jack Der-Stepanian; and Sarkis Gultvarian, of Kitchener, Ontario. Junior usher was Mike Hovsepian, of Livonia.

A dinner reception followed the ceremony with some 200 guests attending. For the occasion Mrs. Der-Stepanian donned a pink satin A-line dress with a matching lace jacket. The bridegroom's sister wore a pale green brocade ensemble. Arrangements of baby orchids were added to both dresses.

Following their honeymoon, the newlyweds took up residence at One Imperial lane, Galt, Ontario. The bride is a former employee of Michigan Bell Telephone. Her new husband, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Kassamanian, of Ainjar, Lebanon, is employed by Budd's Automotive, in Kitchener, Ontario.

His two-day visit in the port city, included attending the theater and the Finnish production, "Don Quixote" with his hosts, and touring the University of Helsinki where they also enjoyed dinner.

Tytti's former classmates and friends will be glad to hear she's still the happy, bubbling girl they knew in Belleville.

AND FROM TEXAS

JETTING IN last Thursday evening after a week-long stay in Houston, Texas were Ed and Mary Anne Hudge, of Haggerty road. Combining business with pleasure, they spent the weekend sight-seeing with a visit to NASA some 20 miles from Houston; a drive to the resort area of Galveston on the Gulf of Mexico where they watched surfers in 62 degree weather; a stop at the famous Astrodome; and a tour of the USS Texas anchored at San Jacinto.

Monday was the start of meetings for Ed who was on the executive committee for the Second Annual Meeting of the Society of Research Administrators. Sessions were held at the Shamrock Hilton where Ed and Mary Anne made their headquarters. While their husbands were engrossed in administrative meetings the ladies toured Westbury Square, (a quaint shopping center), and enjoyed a boat trip to the Port of Houston. Then on Saturday night (back home again) they joined three other couples for dinner at the Statler-Hilton, near Ann Arbor: Ron and Jan Sierota, John and Barb Hand, of Dearborn; and Bill and Flo Hudge. The occasion marked the March birthdays of Barb (on the fourth), and Jan and Mary Anne, having theirs back to back on the 10th and 11th. The group enjoyed cocktails and cheese fondue at the Sierota's Quirk road home prior to leaving.

HERE 'N THERE

THE JAHNERS -- Frank and Margaret -- are back at their Quirk road home after 10 days in Florida (usually billed as the sunshine state) where they hit on the recent cold spell which chilled everyone. Making the trip via jet, they visited their daughter and son-in-law, Virginia and Dave Horste, and their children at Fort Lauderdale, and also called on the Joseph Horstes, of Savage road, who were vacationing in Melbourne. . . ALSO home from Florida after an absence of some five weeks are Don and Mary Bleszke who are back at their Haggerty road address after making their 'home-away-from-home' in Miami. . . MRS. JOSEPH HORVATH, of New Boston, we hear, was also a recent Florida visitor who took in the famous Silver Springs with its glass bottom boat tours. She was away from February 13 through the 28th.

Greatest Show On..?

THE GREATEST AIR SHOW ever presented in this area will be staged at nearby Willow Run Airport Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 14 and 15. The Michigan Aeronautics and Space Association will sponsor the huge weekend aviation extravaganza.

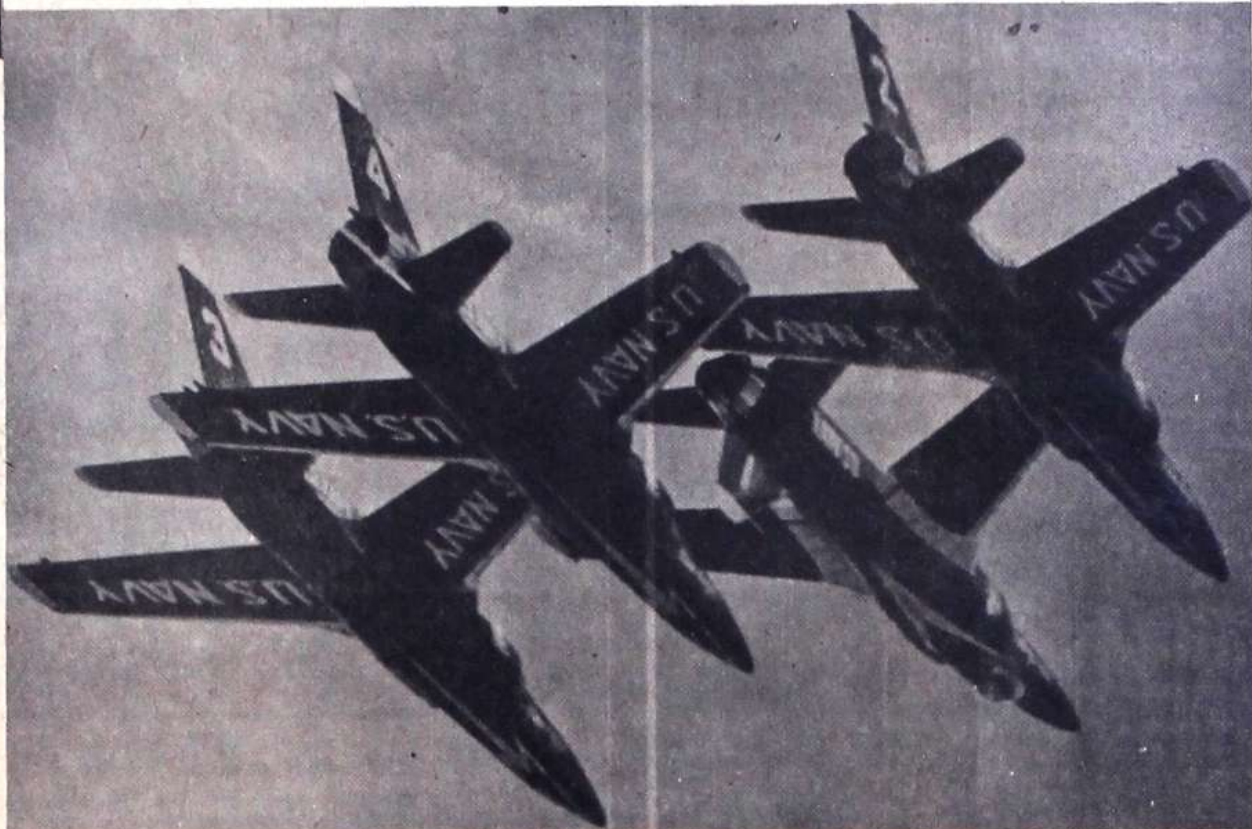

James V. Votta, Executive Vice President of MASA announced the plans this past weekend. Votta also stated that confirmation has been received only a few days ago that the world famous U.S. Navy's "Blue Angels" will highlight the two day air show.

This will mark only the second time in over ten years that a major air show will be held in Western Wayne County. The first was two years ago when the two day event attracted over 125,000 spectators and established without doubt that the public was highly enthusiastic over the return of the air show era. No show was held last year in favor of Selfridge Air Force Base's 50th Anniversary where special air programs were staged.

Tremendous plans and preparations are in motion to make this year's event the greatest of them.

Already booked to perform will be another world famous air show act, the U.S. Army's "Golden Knights" parachute team. This group of chute jumpers is demonstrated when, after jumping from an aircraft thousands of feet in the sky, they manipulate their parachute with such skill as to land in a 25-foot circle in front of the grandstand.

Depending on the demands of the War in Vietnam, the aver-

BREATHTAKER OF ALL precision aerial maneuvers ever seen in the world is shown in this photo why the famed aerobatic team are second to none. With wings tips of their F-11 Jets only six feet apart the Blue Angles pass by with the lead airplane flying up-side-down leading the other three at speeds close to 600 miles per hour. The Blue Angels will highlight the program both day.

bring one of the "rare" World War-I aircraft for display here.

Civilian aircraft will also share a large portion of the two day exhibition. Light family and business type airplanes will be on display by many of the civilian manufacturers. Small aircraft with appeal to the average person's budget will be shown and even flown for prospective customers who would like to "try it and fly it." All types from the two-passenger to the larger four and six-passenger family sizes will be on hand.

For the first time a show is being fully planned from a spectator viewpoint. This year's show will be staged from the terminal side of the Willow Run Airport. The huge terminal buildings will be ideal housing for the many planned displays and indoor type events that were difficult to present outdoors. The aerial demonstrations will be staged to the Northeast and that means by afternoon the spectators will not have to stare into a blazing sun as in previous years.

Many other events and special attractions will be forthcoming and this column will keep its readers advised with new events as they are announced.

PASTOR'S POINTERS

The Twinge Of Conscience That Hurts..!

ISN'T ANYTHING SACRED anymore?

First, foolish scoffers told us that God is dead. Then Santa Claus was caught this past Christmas season going through some man's pants pockets. That's enough right there to shake anyone.

But now, even one-calorie red pop is being rapped. No foolin! Red pop. The juice that makes you feel like a kid again -- with button-bedecked cap and all. The finger of suspicion points directly at it. Let me take a minute to recapitulate and gather my thoughts.

I can see how someone who didn't want to face the question of sin, hell and judgment would want to rationalize God out of the picture. That's understandable. Hugh Schonfield in his book, "The Passover Plot", goes so far as to say Jesus Christ pulled a fast one by using mirrors, I mean disciples, in faking His resurrection. He didn't really die and rise again, according to Mr. Schonfield, but his many accomplices helped him stage the disappearing act. Shades of Harry Houdini!

That is enough to sicken any true believer.

Compounding the confusion of right and wrong, this past Christmas, Santa was caught in someone's bedroom going through the man's trouser pockets. It wasn't his wife dressed as the jolly gent, either! A bona fide Chris Kringle, he.

My three small boys added insult to injury when I asked them if there really was a Santa Claus. "There was, but he died a long time ago," they seemed to chorus simultaneously.

"Then who brought all your presents?" I asked bravely. "You know!" they responded, looking me right in the eye.

Now, doctors say too much artificially sweetened red pop may be very harmful. Should I stop imbibing my favorite? I've always been able to offer my friends who drink a bottle of one-calorie red pop in place of their favorite draft brew. Now they'll be able to say the crimson phosphate is dangerous, and feel justified in so doing. I'm really shaken.

I have no fear about my faith in God. I love Jesus Christ better every day. Santa Claus still seems very real to me.

But, I feel a twinge of conscience everytime the man on television asks, "When's the last time you had a real good slug of red pop?"

JUST LIKE A BIRD - A member of the Army's Golden Knights' parachute team floats through the air over 10,000 feet above the earth. The entire team will perform heart chiller aerobatics during the two-day MASA air show, Sept. 14-15.

TIGER TALES

It's cheerleading tryout time again at Belleville High School. Practices for learning the cheers and exercises are being held after school on Tuesdays and Thursdays March 14, 19, 21, and on Saturday, March 23, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

The tryouts for reserve cheerleaders will be held on March 26, and for the varsity, March 28. They will be narrowed down to 16 girls and will be chosen on the basis of their pep, poise, personality, and overall representation. The girls must have at least a "C" average in their school work to be eligible.

Mrs. Marjorie Jahr's second hour journalism class has tackled another group project, the third issue of "Tiger Tracks".

The paper will be sold this Friday (March 15) during home-room. This issue will publicize the Sadie Hawkins dance, coming up March 22, and will play up a Spring-Easter theme.

Throughout the halls of the school a common groan is heard, "Two more weeks before our class rings come. I don't think I'll live that long."

The groans are heard mostly from sophomores. They have a right to groan because the shipment of the 1970 class rings has been delayed from Wednesday, March 6, to Tuesday, March 19. Kids here have been waiting anxiously for them ever since last October when they paid a $10 deposit on them.

Another type of comment is also heard, "I'm glad they're not here. I don't have 20 dollars for the balance yet."

THE SAFE PLEASURE Boating course started last Thursday, March 7. This free course is directed mainly toward freshmen, although it can be for anyone between the ages of 12 and 16. This course allows those people to be able to operate a motor boat without the supervision of an older person.

The pleasure boating class meets every Thursday after school in the chorus room. The full course lasts five hours.

The instructors are from the U.S. Coast Guard, The U.S. Power Squadron and the Wayne County Sheriff Department. Last Thursday's instructor was Sergeant J. Boyd of the Wayne County Sheriff Department.

A "Boating Safety Certificate" will be issued to all those who pass the course satisfactorily. This will be his license to operate a motor boat, and it must be presented if a peace officer wishes to see it.

GIRLS ARE now signing up for the Flamingo Workshop sponsored by Mrs. Ruth Smith. Any girl in grades eight through 11 may come if she's qualified.

To be qualified she must be able to swim 10 feet of water in a relaxed manner, and do these following strokes reasonably well; breast stroke, side stroke, back crawl, front crawl with head out of water, and treading water in a vertical position.

Workshop for beginners will be held the week of March 18, and March 25, from 3 to 4 p.m. Advanced workshop will be held the week of April 1, from 3 until 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Eighth grade girls may attend Tuesday and Thursday of each week.

THE LOCAL forensic contest was held last Wednesday and Thursday, March 6 and 7 during the sixth hour and after school in the library.

There were six categories that the students could enter. The first three were held March 6. They were Oratory, Serious Interpretive Readings, and Humorous Readings. The Serious interpretation consisted of literature that was read aloud. The Humorous Reading was done the same way with the exception of its subject. The Oratory was original and was memorized.

The last three events held on March 7, were Declamation, Extemporaneous Speaking, and Radio News Commentary.

The Declamation was limited to ninth and tenth grade students only. They were written by another person and memorized. The Extemporaneous speaking was where the students read widely on three subjects that were given. They drew a specific subject and had one hour to prepare their speech. The contestants in the Radio News event were to gather news articles, organize them, and present them as a broadcast.

The winners in each category are as follows: Humorous Reading: Helen Mills first; Pam Bowers, second; Evonne Gustin, third; Carey Mills, fourth.

Serious readings: Trudie Flanery, first; Rosemary Lockli, second; Julie Denison, third; and Joy Rhodes, fourth.

Girls' Extemporaneous: Elaine Hudson, first and Pam Phillips, second.

Boys' Extemporaneous: Jim Smallish, first; John Bole, second.

Declamation: Denise McCollum, first; Jackie Barnett, second; Barbara Lobbestael, third; and Donna Grezik, fourth.

Radio News: Allan Maki, first; Dave Lamb, second; and Tom Oldham, third. Oratory: Joyce Smith, first. Boys' Oratory: Dwight Pattalocco, first and Jim Passeur, second.

BOONE SCORES 19 AGAINST CHAMPS

Belleville Gives Top Rated Ypsi Battle for Title

Belleville, which overpowered John Glenn and Cherry Hill to qualify for the District Class A finals at Eastern Michigan, put up a staunch battle against Ypsilanti, the No. 1 Class A team in the state, before falling to the champs, 75-51.

Coach Larry Hulce's team, led by Wilson Boone and Bob Fowlkes, kept in the game until midway in the second period when Larsen took over with his tip-ins.

At halftime, the undisputed inaugural Sauk Trail champs who are undefeated in 20 games this season, led 40-26. Ypsi outgunned the Tigers

35-25 in the last half and was never in serious trouble of being overtaken in the finals. Larsen, with 16 baskets and seven free throws, had one of his best scoring nights of the season while teammate, Bob Rhodin, who pumped in five baskets and seven free throws for 17, was the only other Ypsi eager to manage double figures.

Boone wrapped up his prep cage career with 19 points on six baskets and seven free throws for 19 points. Bob Fowlkes accounted for 11 points.

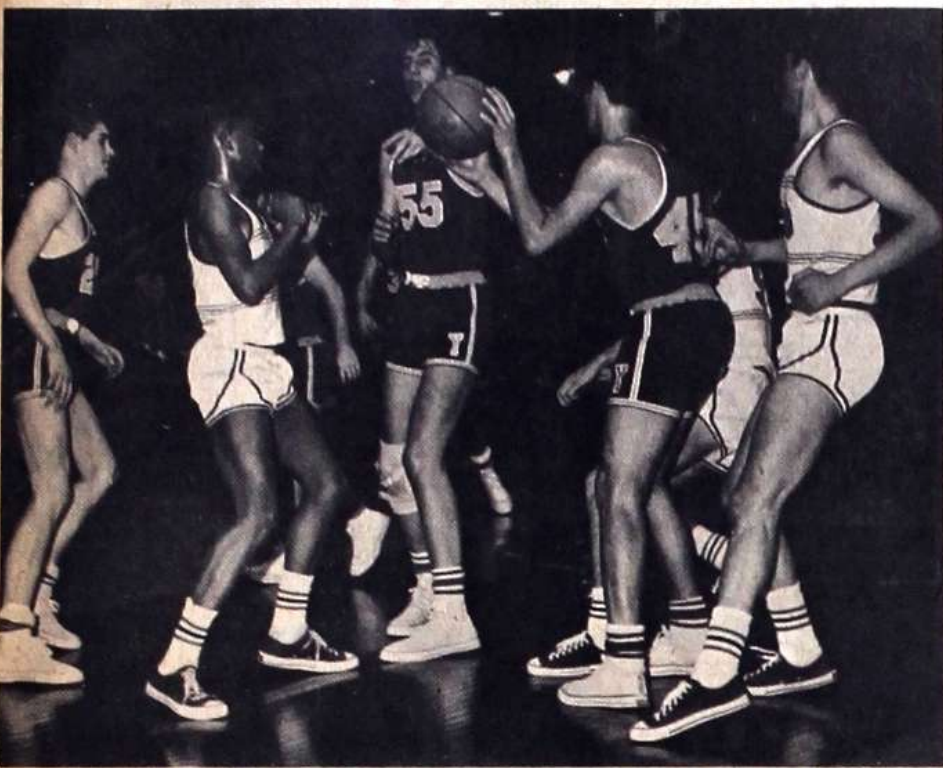

At the foul line, Belleville used up 19 of 32 chances to Ypsi's almost perfect 15 of 16. "I was proud of our boys," said coach Hulce afterwards. "We played a fine game of basketball and I feel our boys gave it everything they had."

Belleville finished up the season with a 7-1 overall record, its best in recent years.

Tigers Erase Cherry Hill, 57-52

Cherry Hill, a 1-13 finisher in the Tri-River Conference, put up a battle before it yielded to Belleville in the second round of the Class A District playoffs at Eastern Michigan University.

The Spartans, although they never led, stayed uncomfortably close to coach Larry Hulce's team before falling 57-52.

Belleville took the initiative and drove to a 14-11 first period lead, but Cherry Hill's Dave Wert came alive and pumped in eight points in the second period to keep his team in the game at halftime 29-24. The Tigers, with Norm Harrington and Phil Hopkins showing the way, were able to maintain their slim four point margin at the end of the third frame, but the Spartans refused to concede until the final minute of play.

Cherry Hill tied up the game at 52-all with 1:30 left on the clock with Wert's jump shot.

After Belleville gave up the ball on a miscue, Hopkins stole it back and passed it to John Gasidlo who banked it in to break the deadlock for good. The Spartans' attempt for the knotter was foiled when coach Joe LaScola's team handed the ball over on a turnover and with 30 seconds to go Hopkins was fouled and awarded a one-and-one.

The senior guard sank both fouls to give the Tigers a 56-52 advantage.

Harrington and Hopkins shared their team's scoring honors with 13 points each while teammate Wilson Boone finished the night with 11 points. John Yocum, who ended the night with six points, was the key to Belleville's board strength.

Wert wound up the night's high man with five baskets and four free throws for 14. Teammate Ray Wiacek finished his prep cage career with 13 points while freshman Andy Solovay accounted for 10.

Cherry Hill's 6-7 soph center added nine points.

Nether team was impressive at the foul line, the Spartans were given 21 opportunities and made 12 of them while Belleville approached the line for 28 shots and made 15 of them.

CENTER ATTRACTION—Eyes focus upon Ypsilanti 6-9 center, Craig Larsen (55) who bagged 37 points in leading his team to a 75-51 victory over Belleville. That victory assured the Braves, who are rated the top team in the state, of the District Title and a berth in the Regional Playoffs.

WAYNE'S RODRIGUEZ IS CHAMP

Warrick 2nd in State

by Bob Miller

Wayne Memorial grappler Randy Rodriguez led all area matmen finishing highest in his 133-pound weight class for the state title in the State Wrestling Finals held at Jackson Parkside High School's field house last Friday and Saturday.

Rodriguez, Memorial's first

All-Stater since Rodney Ott won in 1962, dethroned Les Burger from Hazel Park, 6-4, in the finals.

In the first period of their match both Rodriguez and Burger scored two points. Then the Wayne wrestler held the advantage over his Hazel Park counterpart during the whole of the second period picking up valuable riding time.

The third period was a replay of the first as both wrestlers picked up a pair of points. The importance of riding time came into the picture at that point. Rodriguez had enough riding time to pick up two points giving him the victory.

To gain entry into the final round, Rodriguez whipped Matt Clemons' Greg Green, 7-0; Walled Lake's Bob Hellner, 4-3; and East Grand Rapids' Kerry Sawyer, 6-2.

"I was happy just to be in the finals," said the newly crowned champ who was seeded seventh in the tournament. "My toughest opponent was the one from Walled Lake, but I just took the matches one by one."

Wayne Coach Ray Rafford said "Randy's done a real great job here. His victory was like the frosting on the cake to his 22-1 season."

"I'm really proud of him and I know we'll miss him next year," he added.

Although Rodriguez was the only wrestler in the area to win he was not alone in making it to the last match. Brad Warrick of Belleville who had breezed through his three matches to qualify for the finals in the 95-pound division was edged by Ron Miller of Lansing Eastern, 3-0, in the initial match of the finals.

Lansing Eastern was the winner of the state team championship.

In his preliminary matches Warrick had little trouble. He beat Nick Lopetrono of Warren Mott, 7-3, demolished Rich Heath of Grand Rapids Union, then shutout East Lansing's Jeff Zindell, 6-0.

GOLIATH FALLS--Ypsi's 6-9 center, Craig Larsen (55) found himself on the floor vying for the ball with Belleville's John Yocum (white jersey). The giant Ypsi center drilled in 26 of his 37 points against the Tiger before the half to erase Belleville 75-51 in the district finals held at Eastern Michigan University Saturday night. Belleville earned the right to meet the undisputed ruler of the Sauk Trail which is also the No. 1 Class A team in the state this season with victories over John Glenn and Cherry Hill.

Eagles Blow 10-Point Lead

Bruins Rally Past Romulus

An erratic Romulus blew a ten point first half lead against Wyandotte which cost them a 68-64 defeat and a chance for the Class A District cage title at Trenton.

The Eagles led Wyandotte

most of three period until Chuck Taylor's long shot of the final second of the third period. That basket moved the Bruins to a 50-49 margin. They never surrendered the lead.

Coach Al Duva's team moved out in front in the first period, 18-13, with Larry Smith contributing six of those 18 points. Mike Woods, Romulus' leading scorer and rebounder, took over in the next eight minutes and drilled in nine of his 16 points to spark the Eagles to a 37-27 halftime margin.

But Taylor and Rich Bertchinger kept their team in the game with some fancy shooting outside the Eagle zone and, until the 7:59 mark, the Romulus Eagles had the lead.

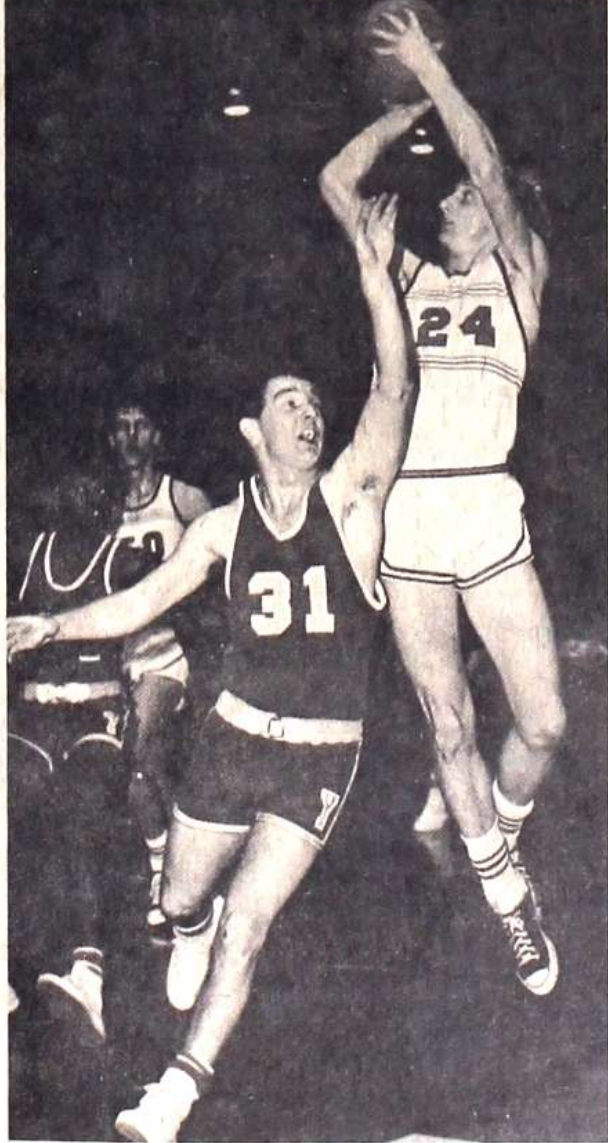

Then came Taylor's long shot. Taylor, who is one of the leading scorers downriver, picked up seven baskets and eight free throws for 27 points for the game's individual scoring honors while Bertchinger bagged 25 on 11 field goals and three free throws.

Nolan Street, one of Duva's prolific marksmen, got into foul trouble early in the game and was used sparsely throughout the match. Street, averaging 25 points per game during the second phase of the Twin Valley Conference season, wound up with three baskets and one free throw for seven points.

The Eagles also received double figures from Smith and Mike Harding. Each had six baskets and two free throws for 14. Romulus enjoyed a 12 of 15 night at the free throw lines compared to 18 for 26 for the Bruins.

Fowlkes Hot, Scores 25 to Lead Tigers Past Glenn, 71-44

John Glenn couldn't stop Belleville or forward Bob Fowlkes in the opening round of district cage competition at Eastern Michigan University and was eliminated by a fired-up Tiger crew, 71-44.

Fowlkes sparked his team to a 55-32 third period advantage, getting eight of his 25 points for the evening in that pivotal quarter. The Rockets managed to stay in the game up to that point on Kerry Webb and Paul Chevariati's performance.

Belleville moved slowly to a 16-13 lead in the first quarter and stayed in front 34-22 at halftime. The knock out punch which coach Larry Hulce's boys threw at the Rockets in the third frame was enough for the Westland team.

Fowlkes was hot throughout the game. He hit on 10 field goals and five free throws for which gave him the game's individual scoring honors.

Also in double figures for the Tigers were captain Wilson Boone, who pumped in nine field goals and added a free throw for 19, while teammate Norm Harrington bagged 12 points on five fielders and two free throws.

Webb, who was instrumental in leading Glenn to its best cage season in four years, climaxed his prep career with a 16 point night while Chevariati supported him with 12 points.

At the foul lines, Glenn finished up with 10 of 16 while Belleville settled for 11 of 17 tries.

It was the second time these two teams had met this season. At the Glenn Christmas Tourney, Belleville defeated the host and later went on to capture the tourney trophy.

Monroe CC Blasts Huron from Playoffs

Monroe Catholic Central opened up with their long range guns in the second half and pulled away from a 40-29 halftime margin to trounce Huron 93-65 at Flat Rock.

The Hurons gave the Twin Valley Conference cellar dweller a battle in the first period with Jim Inman getting six of the Chiefs' 19 points. Monroe led 20-19 at the close of the initial period.

But Denny Mathews and Denny Miller teamed up for 45 points to erase any Huron threat. Catholic Central moved on to a 69-41 third period margin before breezing into the finals. In the finals they fell to the host, Flat Rock 66-51.

Riverside Wins Basketball Game

NEW BOSTON -- Scoring 39 points to New Boston's 22, the Riverside sixth grade proved to be the victors in last week's basketball game.

Another Coach vs Ref Chapter

I told Bill that Franklin is a very young school and when it matures it'll understand the importance of public relations. And those irate Garden City West cage fans who have been fuming over THAT REF - forget it. I talked with Charlie Forsythe, state director of high school athletics, on Monday and he says his department had conducted an investigation into the allegations and came up with nothing.

Charlie, however, did promise to have that cup of coffee with us after the state tourney.

That continuous story of coach versus ref has produced some interesting comments; one of the letters which I have received from a local coach will take up this space next week. It'll give me a chance to see my doc.

Livonia Franklin's Frank Rekieta, John Glenn's Ray Lane and Wayne Memorial's Dave Shinn were the other area matmen to win at least one match in the tournament. Rekieta just edged Owosso's Bob Whipple, 2-0, only to lose 145-pound Roger Duty of Royal Oak Dondoro, 5-1, in the quarterfinals.

Lane knocked off Saginaw MacArthur's Chuck LaFountain, 4-0, before conceding to rival 154-pounder Roggie Rodriguez of Pontiac Central, 5-3.

Shinn, suffering from an injured ankle sustained in winning the regional tournament a week earlier, lost to the eventual 138-pound winner Bruce Zindell of East Lansing, 8-3, after Rodger Badgerow from Port Huron North at 1:04 of the second period.

Area teams represented by other wrestlers were Garden City West by Mike Jose and Darryl Whipple; Inkster by Bob Hartfield; Livonia Bentley by Lou Berto and Steve Whistler; Romulus by Ralph Logan; Livonia Stevenson by Dennis Belknap; John Glenn by Dave Arble and Ron Woody; and Wayne Memorial by Terry Cockrum.

Hoffman's Panthers Win Again

SUMPTER -- The Hoffman Junior High Basketball Team, in their final game of the season, soared to a 47-45 victory over Ecorse.

The victory avenged an earlier loss to the same team. Under the competent leadership of Coach, Dennis B. Sharey, the Panthers finished with a 6 win, 3 loss, season. This is a very impressive record, since it is Hoffman's first year of interscholastic competition.

The Panthers had a rigid schedule playing such experienced teams as Ecorse, Romulus, Dearborn Heights and Nankin Mills.

The members of the team are Michael Hopkins, Ricky Duckins, Michael Compau, Emanuel Gillum, Curtis Felton, Johnny Majors, Derek Hopkins, Darcel Davis, Nathaniel Jackson and George Gambles.

The individual Scoring Record went to Michael Hopkins, but he was followed very closely by the other team members.

Willie Richardson, Martens Center 139 pounder who won the national Golden Gloves crown in his class last year, is another top contender. He scored a second round TKO over Gary David of Kronk Center in the local Gloves meet.

T. F. (TED) KUCKELMAN

ANP EDITORIAL

A Standing Ovation for Ted Kuckelman

AT THE END OF THIS month, Westland will be losing the full-time services of one of its most enthusiastic boosters - T. F. (Ted) Kuckelman - who founded the Westland Chamber of Commerce more than four years ago.

Kuckelman, now nearly 80, has made service the keystone of his long and productive public life. Through the Rotary Club, the Rotary Foundation, Chambers of Commerce and Crippled Children's charitable work, Kuckelman has gained and thoroughly earned the respect of many, many friends in Western Wayne County.

A native of Belleville, Kuckelman has never respected local boundaries. His support of worthwhile community endeavors has been area-wide. A past District Governor of the Rotary, Kuckelman has made countless speeches on behalf of the Rotary Foundation, and particularly the Foundation's Crippled Children's projects.

His contribution to the betterment and future of Wayne and Westland has been immeasurable. Their Chambers of Commerce, under his guidance, advanced to positions of substantial influence in the community. The Westland Chamber was instrumental in bringing Westland its promised post office during Ted's term of office as executive secretary.

Business people and resident consumers alike can attest to Kuckelman's willingness to assist them in keeping Western Wayne a good community in which to live.

In leaving his full-time job, Ted has promised that he will be "as close as the telephone," when anyone needs his assistance. We, in turn, extend to him a standing ovation for assistances already rendered - and our best wishes for many more pleasant years ahead. He has earned them.

Station Here Is Again Hit By Robbers

BELLEVILLE -- Two men, one armed with a pistol, held up the Clark Super 100 Service Station, located at Belleville Road and I-94 Expressway early last Wednesday, March 6, and escaped with approximately $255. It was the second time in a month that the service station was robbed.

Attendant Gary Woods reported to State Police from the Ypsilanti Post that two men drove into the station around 5 a.m.

When he approached the car, the men waived him off. As he turned to go back into the building, one of the men armed with a gun demanded money.

Woods and a companion were ordered to stay in a restroom and told "not to come out or he'd blow their heads off." The car used by the robbers was described as "a rusted old Rambler Station Wagon, colored yellow or cream."

Owner Jerry Scott, who is liable for both losses (a lone man robbed the station of $70 Feb. 20) reported that the pre-dawn robberies will force him to close at mid-nights instead of staying open 24-hours a day.

The purpose of the event is to help the Scouts learn more about people in other countries and also to bring to the community a greater awareness of Girl Scouting.

Each troop will have a booth displaying items from a foreign country. The Girl Scout uniform of the country represented, will also be displayed. The Scouts will perform skits and dances on stage to help demonstrate the country they represent.

To celebrate the 50th Anniversary of Girl Scouting, the Huron Valley Council brought over three Girl Scout Guides from India for a visit in 1963. Huron Scouts had the pleasure of entertaining them for a day. The adults held a tea, the Brownies took them on a hayride through the South Huron Orchards, the Intermediates conducted a tour of the Michigan Memorial Park, and the Seniors had a talk session with them at the home of Miss Leota Kyko, of Hannan road. In the evening the adults and scout troops held a banquet for the Guides at St. John's Lutheran Church.

A film was taken of these busy events. It will be shown at the Fair, Saturday, at approximately 3 p.m. This is the first time it has been shown for public viewing. If you took part in greeting Sunita, Rupa and Miss Caleb back in 1963 and would like to see this film be sure to attend.

All scouts, Brownies thru Seniors, will be taking part in the fair. The public is welcome to attend. Admission is free.

Mrs. Tina Price, (the former Isabella Vena), of 30355 Judd road, was the first place trophy winner in the Showmobile races held at Ford Lake, Ypsilanti, Sunday, March 3. The races are sponsored by Peninsula Snowmobiling. Tina's winning snowmobile was a 1967 Ski Doo, stock 250-350 series.

YMCA Sets Clean-Up of New Land
WAYNE -- The YMCA has scheduled a clean-up Saturday, March 16, of its new property at 827 S. Wayne Road. Starting at 1 p.m., all members are urged to participate.

"There is paper to be picked up, bushes to be pruned, brush to be cleaned up, painting, window washing, carpentry, and many other things that need to be done," according to a club spokesman.

Members are urged to bring any equipment which might be useful in clean-up work, both in the house, outside, or on the grounds.

A potluck picnic at 5:30 p.m. has been scheduled. Members are instructed to bring a dish to share and their own table service. Coffee, hot chocolate, and cold beverages will be provided throughout the after.

"In case of rain or snow, the clean-up will be held the following week," the spokesman said.

Fall Vote Likely on Home Rule

DETROIT -- The question of whether to move toward home rule county government in Wayne County may be before the voters in the general election next Nov. 5.

A policy advisory body of the County Board of Supervisors, the Committee of Chairmen of Standing Committees, recommended March 6 that the Board of Supervisors put the question on the fall ballot.

It is expected to take until some time in May to complete the technical studies which must be made before the Board of Supervisors acts.

The voters would ballot on whether to establish a charter commission to draft a proposed county charter. A partisan primary election would be held at the same time to select nominees from 25 to 35 districts for seats on the charter commission.

If the voters approved establishment of a charter commission, a final election to select its members would be held within two months. The charter commission would have six months to prepare a charter for submission to the voters.

A citizens committee known as the Committee of 99, completed a year-long study of the home rule question last month and recommended that the Board of Supervisors give the voters the opportunity to vote on the question "as soon as possible."

Under county home rule, members of the county legislative body would be elected directly from single-member districts on a partisan basis. There would be an elected county executive, an office which does not exist presently. Reorganization of existing county departments would also be possible, the Committee of 99 reported.

'Sound of Youth' Sets Deadline

ROMULUS -- Romulus Jaycees, sponsors of "Sound of Youth, U.S.A.," urge area teenagers with modern beat musical ability to take a fling at winning a 20-city performing tour of the United States, cash and TV and record contracts, a program spokesman said this week.

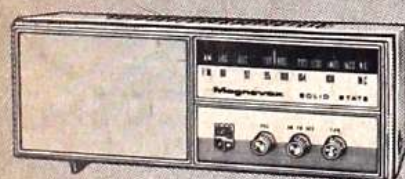

"Sound of Youth, U.S.A.," organized through cooperation of music teachers of various high schools from which entry blanks may be obtained, has scheduled auditions from 6 to 10 p.m. Monday, March 25, at Romulus Junior High School gym.

Top winners from three categories -- male vocal, female vocal, and groups of five members of less -- may enter State competition in Flint and if successful, go on to National competition.

Entry blanks and the $1 entry fee should be mailed to the Romulus Jaycees before Friday, March 22.

IN LOVING memory of my daughter, Florence Migliaccis, who passed away March 8, 1967. Do not ask me if I miss her, For there's such a vacant place, Of I think I hear her footsteps, Or I see her smiling face. Bizek, Perry Attend Senior Club Meeting

ROMULUS -- A meeting of the Senior Citizens Club of Romulus held last Tuesday, March 5, at the Romulus Progressive Club was highlighted by talks by Edmund Bizek, township supervisor and Alfred J. Perry, township clerk. Approximately 25 senior citizens were in attendance.

Perry urged the senior citizens to make sure that they are registered to vote in the upcoming elections and expressed interest in the Club's activities and offered to assist.

Club representatives asked the two township officials how they could encourage other senior citizens in the township to join the club reporting an apparent lack of interest in the club's last meetings.

They felt that many may not be aware of the club's existence.

The supervisor also pointed out they could use their influence in preventing actions that may or could lead to neighborhood disturbances even possible riots this summer. He asked their co-operation in maintaining the peace.
